Victim Advocacy and Crisis Outreach FAQ

Q: What is Title IX?

A: Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972 states: No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance. Sexual harassment, which includes acts of sexual violence, is a form of sexual discrimination prohibited by Title IX.

Q: Who do I report a Title IX violation to?

A: Reports can be submitted to Heather Fink via email, phone, letter, or in person. Her contact information is:

Heather Fink
Title IX Coordinator
Stevens Hall Room 105F
701.774.428
heather.fink@willistonstate.edu

For more information about Title IX, please visit the Williston State College website or contact Heather.

Q: I need a protection/restraining order. What do I do?

A: There are many resources available to you when it comes to protection orders. Initially, you can contact any of the above resources for help. Locally, the Family Crisis Shelter can assist you with safety plans and protection orders and the Williams County Victim Witness Assistance Program can help with court hearings, restitution, and protection orders. Additionally, the North Dakota Supreme Court Legal Self Help Center provides information on the different types of protection orders with instructions for filing.

Q: Does the college offer counseling services?

A: Williston State College offers mental health counseling services for free to students currently enrolled. Personal counseling services provide confidential consultation, brief short term intervention, and referrals. The goal of Counseling Services is to help students return to their normal functioning as soon as possible. Contact Leah Hoffman 701.774.4212 or leah.hoffman@willistonstate.edu for more information.
