

Course Outcome Guide (COG)

Course:	CD 241 Practicum	Credits:	3 (online)	Instructor:	Thomas Linares
Course Description:	CD 241 is a practicum field experience requiring the student to complete 100 clock hours of speech therapy in a public school. The 100 hours must be direct contact hours with students under the supervision of master's degree Speech-Language Pathologist. Staffing, IEP meetings, pre-therapy preparation, shadowing, etc. should not be included as part of the 100 hours requirement.
Concepts and Issues	Process Skills	Assessment Tasks	Intended Outcomes
			Course	General Education or Program	Institutional
1 Articulation, Language and Hearing Screenings	1 Student will observe and/or administer screenings in the public schools	1 Master-level SLP will observe student administer speech, language and/or hearing screenings	1 Student will be able to administer a speech/language and hearing screenings	1. Recognize disorders of voice, articulation, phonology, language, fluency, and hearing.	Students will apply health-related knowledge to promote physical and mental well-being.
2 Therapy intervention procedures	2 Student will conduct 100 hours of therapy in the public school	2 Master-level SLP will observe student administer a variety of therapy procedures	2 Student will be able to provide competent intervention procedures	2. Provide treatment as an SLP Assistant regarding disorders of voice, articulation, phonology, language, fluency and hearing to various demographics.
3 Preparation, documentation	3 Student will prepare materials for therapy and keep track of client progress	3 Master-level SLP will observe student preparing materials for therapy and observe student documenting student progress	3 Student will be able to properly organize therapy materials and document client progress		