

Course Outcome Guide (COG)

Course:	ENGL 262: American Literature II	Credits:	3	Date Edited:	Fall 2020
Course Description:	Study of American writers and writing; begins with selected major works since the Civil War, continuing to the present.
Concepts and Issues	Process Skills	Assessment Tasks	Intended Outcomes
			Course	General Education	Institutional
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Literature</li> <li>Literary elements</li> <li>America</li> <li>Roles diverse times, places, people, ideas, and economic, social, political conditions played in American Literature of the period</li> <li>Critical approaches to literature</li> <li>Interplays of literature and society</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Discuss various texts using common terms and processes</li> <li>Identify various authors by analyzing content and style</li> <li>Explore role of culture in the lives of American writers and readers</li> <li>Evaluate literary corpus for diverse components and classifications</li> </ul>	Student will demonstrate outcomes through various activities and/or projects. These might include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Participation in class discussions</li> <li>Critical analysis of readings</li> <li>Tests of comprehension of material</li> </ul> Projects or presentations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Student will use literary terms and elements to analyze key works of American literature produced within the time period surveyed.</li> <li>Student will identify the purpose and effect of a work of literature examining its cultural and literary context.</li> <li>Student will communicate analyses of key works of American literature produced within the time period surveyed.</li> <li>Student will evaluate how the times, places, and people influenced American literature of the time period.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Students will demonstrate knowledge of diverse cultures and value systems.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Students will demonstrate knowledge of diverse cultures and value systems.</li> </ul>