

Course Outcome Guide (COG)

Course:	HIST 110: Historic Baseball	Credits:	1	Revised:	Fall 2015
Course Description:	This mini-course presents an overview of how “the national pastime” of baseball evolved in the 19 th Century and into the early 20 th Century. Attention will be given on how baseball came into our region and students will assist in researching how early baseball came into their communities.
Concepts and Issues	Process Skills	Assessment Tasks	Intended Outcomes
			Course	General Education or Program	Institutional
*What are the true origins of Baseball in America *How did it evolve & the various methods of play. *Impact of the Civil War on the game *How did it expand after the war & the professionalization of the game *What was the state of game when it arrived on the Northern Plains & how was it received	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identify that continuity and change are the course of human history. Evaluate how did baseball become “America’s Game” Evaluate how the rules of the game and equipment evolved Identify how the game spread and when and how it came to their home communities Utilize both internet and other electronic sources along with tradition libraries for research. Understand that historical events need to be assessed in the 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Participate in Class discussions View Historic film Complete class reading assignments. Complete mini-research project Play two games of historic baseball 	Students will demonstrate knowledge of period rules & equipment. Students will demonstrate college-level writing and critical thinking skills. Students will describe how early baseball came into their home communities.	Students will demonstrate effective communication skills. Students will demonstrate knowledge of diverse cultures and value systems.	Students will demonstrate effective communication skills. Students will demonstrate knowledge of diverse cultures and value systems. context of the time they occurred.

--	------------------------------------	--	--	--	--