

Course Outcome Guide (COG)

Course:	MASG 160 Business Topics	Credits:	3	Instructor:	Wendy McGinley
Course Description:	Pre-requisite: Admission to the Massage Therapy Program. Students will be introduced to topics relevant to practice that benefit both the student and client. This course will address topics such as: pharmacology, documentation, ethics, standards of practice, state laws and additional topics, if allowed by time.
Concepts and Issues	Process Skills	Assessment Tasks	Intended Outcomes
			Course	General Education or Program	Institutional
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Documentation: SOAP note Professional behavior: conduct, language, time management, verbal/non-verbal communication Environment: sanitary protocols, organization, conducive to relaxation. Pharmacology: indications/contraindications, precautions, safety. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Maintains client (student) files. Demonstrate appropriate interaction with students and faculty. Synthesizes other course information to provide safe and appropriate treatment. Assess the effects of pharmacological agents and modify massage accordingly. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Completes appropriate documentation. Demonstrates professional behavior. Participate in class. Complete examinations, quizzes, and worksheets demonstrating mastery and understanding of concepts and issues. Complete assigned projects demonstrating mastery of concepts and issues. 	The student will be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Comply with guidelines set by state laws, codes of ethics, and standards of practice. Demonstrate accurate and concise record keeping. Devise appropriate treatment plan. 	Students will articulate and comply with the ethical and legal standards of the profession. (2)	Students will use reasoning skills to analyze and solve problems. (2)