

Course Outcome Guide (COG)

Course:	MUSC 160: Concert Band	Credits:	1	Date edited:	Fall 2015
Course Description:	The study of instrumental music through group performance and rehearsal. A variety of band music will be introduced and performed at concerts and special events.
Concepts and Issues	Process Skills	Assessment Tasks	Intended Outcomes
			Course	General Education or Program	Institutional
Tone, rhythm, intonation, dynamics, listening, articulation, interpretation of music, musical terminology, and performance etiquette.	Practice reading music selected from a wide variety of styles and genres.  Rehearse with other musicians to develop proper interpretation of music.	At least one concert will be open to the public each semester. Attendance at performances is mandatory.  Students will be graded on attendance and participation.  Each member of the ensemble will be assigned a specific part to practice and perform.	Students will perform a variety of band literature.  Students will perform in concerts and special events.  Students will demonstrate proper techniques required for ensemble performance.  Students will develop listening skills and use parts and/or scores to analyze and evaluate music.	Students will demonstrate effective communication skills.  Students will use reasoning skills to analyze and solve problems.  Students will demonstrate knowledge of diverse cultures and value systems.	Students will demonstrate effective communication skills.  Students will use reasoning skills to analyze and solve problems.  Students will demonstrate knowledge of diverse cultures and value systems.